

PRODUCERS:

Magda Lisek

Jillian Halleron

+61 0403 499 540

couchoperalive@gmail.com

Perth, Western Australia

PRESS RELEASE

Couch Opera Live: From Western Australia to the World!

"Couch Opera Live" is a new performance platform created in Western Australia, by Western Australian artists to showcase the artistry and beauty of the human voice.

"Couch Opera Live Episode 3" will be live streamed and free to watch on 29 August at 7pm AWST. The third concert will feature many artists who have graduated from the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts such as classical voice graduates Eimear Foley who furthered her studies in New York, USA, Lauren Fraser who currently works and resides in Las Vegas, USA, Yann Kee, Brett Peart, Magda Lisek and Jillian Halleron, as well as musical theatre graduate Embla Bishop who is currently in the United Kingdom.

Other artists include Hubert Stolarski from Warsaw, Poland, Sarah Prestwidge and Genevieve Dickson from Sydney, and Leo Williams from Miami, USA.

The concert will feature hits from Puccini and Mozart, to Bernstein and Lloyd-Webber and even a bit of Disney!

A highly successful initiative, "Couch Opera Live" is growing in popularity with thousands of audience members across the world.

All performers have been affected by the widespread cancellation of live events due to the Covid-19 pandemic, and Couch Opera Live aims to fundraise to support the artists performing. All artists will directly benefit from your donation.

For more information and updates please check out the Couch Opera Live Facebook page. The concert will be live streamed on YouTube with a link on Facebook.

YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC70SE--qdFG55R8bMDwMZnw>

Go Fund Me: <https://www.gofundme.com/f/couch-opera-live-episode-3>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Couch-Opera-live-111344390575389/>

